Dr. Lise Van Susteren is this year’s Key Note Speaker. She is a practicing general and forensic psychiatrist in Washington, DC, and is an expert on the physical and mental health effects of climate change. She co-authored "The Psychological Effects of Climate Warming on the U.S. - Why the US Mental Health System Is Not Prepared," and has been a consultant to the Executive Branch of the US Government profiling world leaders.

Mark Heyrman has over 40 years of law experience advocating for individuals with mental illnesses. He focuses his practice in guardianship and mental health legislation. Mr. Heyrman has authored 10 scholarly publications and has worked on over 40 pieces of legislation related to mental health.

Dr. Susan Rogers is president-elect of Physicians for a National Health Program, and will assume the role of president starting in January 2021. She is a volunteer attending hospitalist and internist at the John H. Stroger Jr. Hospital of Cook County after retiring from there in 2014.

Drew Coleman has a professional background as an investment professional having spent time at a fund of hedge funds, a pension fund and an asset manager. His analytical training has taught him to carefully evaluate financial products, client situations, cash-flows and scenario analysis.
